ITALIAN TOWN HALL MEETING IN HARLEM

New York, January 28, 2020

Dear Families,

I am glad to invite you to the Italian Town Hall meeting in Harlem that will take place at Sottocasa Pizzeria (227 Malcom X Boulevard, New York City, NY 10027), in Harlem, on Thursday, February 6, at 7:00 PM.

This is one of New York's historic venues and this gathering aims at promoting the Italian language, which is growing in popularity, thanks to the teamwork of the Italian Institutions and communities in New York. In the backdrop of a real Town Hall we will exchange ideas with the aim of further enriching the promotion of Italian linguistic heritage.

In addition, this will be an opportunity to celebrate the common work on the Italian language done with the P.S. 242-The Young Diplomats Magnet Academy, which is the first Italian bilingual public school in Manhattan.

Your presence will be much appreciated in order to strengthen the social and cultural Italian network in New York City.

Sincerely,

Francesco Genuardi
Consul General of Italy in New York
