

Need some good advice about getting into college?

Getting into college has gotten a lot more stressful than it needs to be. We're out to change that. Collegewise is a private college counseling company founded on the belief that the college process should be enjoyable and that the most selective colleges don't have the market cornered on great college experiences. We've helped nearly 8,000 kids find, apply to and attend the right colleges for each student.

Here are three ways Collegewise can help you.

🍁 VISIT our website at www.collegewise.com.

Find out about our college counseling programs, hear from students and parents who've worked with us, or visit our online store.

🍁 REGISTER for our monthly email newsletter.

Our free monthly email newsletter includes helpful tips, reminders of important deadlines, and information about great colleges you might not know about. Just visit our website at www.collegewise.com and click on our newsletter sign-up icon at the bottom of the page.

🍁 READ our blog at www.wiselikeus.com

Our blog features daily entries of advice, encouragement, and a little cheerleading to help you through the college admissions process.

“Collegewise took all of the stress out of my college application process, and at times made it even fun! I was able to finish everything I needed for my applications with plenty of time to spare. Thank you so much for everything! I definitely could not have done it without all of your help!”

Maddie J.

Collegewise Class of 2016
Washington University in St. Louis

Contact Us!

Jennifer Turano

jennifert@collegewise.com

929-352-5798

Katie Sprague

katies@collegewise.com

347-974-4151

Collegewise