

Penn-Trafford Drama Guild presents their 2019 Fall Play

THE MOUSE THAT ROARED

Adapted by Christopher Sergel

Based on the book by Leonard Wibberley

Directed by Tom Bekavac

Asst. to the Director Maddy Petrillo

Student Choreographer Sarah Winchell

In this satirical comedy, the tiny European Duchy of Grand Fenwick is on the brink of bankruptcy. Their economy has been devastated by a California winery making a knockoff of their famous Pinot Grand Fenwick wine! How do they compete with the California company? How will they recover? Duchess Gloriana's solution is to lose a war with the United States.

Surely, the United States will rehabilitate their "enemy's" economy.

But what happens if the Duchy of Grand Fenwick wins?

Saturday, November 16 at 3:00pm and 7:30pm

And Sunday, November 17 at 3:00pm

At the Penn-Trafford Performing Arts Center

Tickets are $6.00 and available only at the door

PTHSDramaguild.com