

Reading is “Going to the Dogs”
at the Penn Area Library

Would your child like a patient, attentive friend to read to? “Dogs and Tales” provides an opportunity for your child to read to registered therapy dogs in a relaxed atmosphere.

“Dogs and Tales” sessions will be held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month at the Penn Area Library. The next session will be on September 20th from 4:00 to 5:00 pm.

The dogs sit calmly and quietly for a story, while children practice reading out loud without fear of judgment.

It’s a great way for children to gain confidence in their reading.

Please call the library to register your child for this session or for further information. 724-744-4414.
