

SCHOOL SPIRIT WEEK

It's McCullough Elementary School's SPIRIT WEEK!

The week of February 11th through Feb 15th has been designated as McCullough's School Spirit Week! One item that I ask is that you do not paint your face on any of these days! Show your school spirit by participating in the daily spirit activities:

Monday, February 11th is "CRAZY HAT DAY!"

If you have a silly hat, today is the day to wear it! Cowboy hats, baseball hats, military hats, furry hats...find a CRAZY hat and bring it to school to wear!

Tuesday, February 12th is "Fluorescent Day!"

On this day, we need to bring a lot of brightness to the winter doldrums. Please wear the brightest clothes that you can find. This is your day to make McCullough shine!!!

Wednesday, February 13th is "COLLEGE DAY!"

Show your school spirit by wearing items of clothing that have your favorite college or university displayed on it! Wear the college shirt that shows where your parents went to school or where you would like to go to school! Your teachers will also be showing their college spirit!

Thursday, February 14th is "MISMATCH DAY!"

Today is the day that it is perfectly acceptable to be confused. It is also Valentine's Day. Wear those clothes that do not match... shirts, socks, shoes, but be sure to add a little red for your Valentine.

Friday, February 15th is "CRAZY HAIR DAY!" & "Green & Gold Day"

It's a double day today!! Crazy Hair you might have four ponytails, a bunch of hair clips, or some color, gel and spritz in your crazy hairstyle! The crazier the hair, the better! Finish the week strong by wearing Green & Gold!!!

SHOW YOUR MCCULLOUGH SCHOOL SPIRIT THE WHOLE WEEK DURING SPIRIT WEEK!
