

Jazz Band

This band is audition based and meets weekly in the evening. Students are introduced to the American Art Form of Jazz. Students develop advanced music reading skills and individual improvisation opportunities are available to students who wish to experiment with musical performance and skills.

Jazz Band students perform at both the winter and spring school concerts.