

Science Olympiad

Students who enjoy science and wish to learn more through exciting projects are welcome to join the Science Olympiad. Members participate in 19 events which span many scientific disciplines, culminating in a regional competition each winter.

Students and advisors meet on a regular basis working on projects and skills in preparation for the competition. All students are encouraged to participate.