

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is an international organization committed to the concept of safe, affordable housing for all. Students who participate in the THS chapter work on “builds” in local neighborhoods and nearby towns and cities to build, renovate and repair houses.

Recent volunteer efforts include renovating the ECAP center in Tuckahoe as well as working on new construction of homes destroyed during Hurricane Sandy in Breezy Point, NY.