

Dear Principals,

I hope you had a safe and restful weekend. Attached you will find a letter with timely information provided by our City colleagues about two important actions New Yorkers can take immediately to have their voices heard about the future of our city: filling out the 2020 United States Census, and voting in the primary election on Tuesday, June 23.

Please share it with your school communities as soon as possible. Translated versions of this letter will be made available shortly at <https://www.schools.nyc.gov/learn-at-home/chancellor-s-message-for-families>

[Messages for Families - New York City
Department of Education](#)

As a reminder, June 26 is the last day of school and a half day for all students. We will issue additional guidance to families about the end of the 2019-20 school year in the coming weeks. Thank you again for your partnership as we continually navigate unfamiliar terrain. I often say that we have the best students, staff, and families in the ...
