

Knowledge is Power!

NYCDOE's Division of Multilingual Learners is excited to partner with ImmSchools to offer a virtual session to know your rights.

Join this #MultilingualMonday event to:

Tap into your power by learning about your rights as immigrant students and families during COVID-19. This session will focus on educational rights, resources for our immigrant community during COVID-19 and knowledge on how to navigate encounters with policing entities including Immigration Custom Enforcement. This session is a safe space for immigrant students, and families will be led by immigrant educators from ImmSchools. All are welcomed.

Date: June 15th, 2020
