

VS.8b Reconstruction: African American Power in VA Govt.

Marshall Frederick Douglass, a city officer in Washington, D.C., during the reconstruction.

Hon. Josiah Thomas Walls of Florida between 1860 and 1875

Men of all races could vote during the Reconstruction.

During the Reconstruction
African American men could vote.
They could also hold political office.

Teacher Tips:

1. Copy the "during reconstruction" and "after reconstruction" rectangles onto a white $8 \frac{1}{2} \times 11$ " piece of paper.
2. Fold a piece of colorful paper in half, hamburger fold.
3. Cut out the "during reconstruction" rectangle and glue it on the top of the foldable.
4. Cut out the "after reconstruction" rectangle" a on the inside of the foldable.
5. On the top part of the inside, have students create drawings and captions to show each.

VS.8b Reconstruction: African American Power in VA Govt.

After Reconstruction
Jim Crow Laws
established segregation.