Look at the 4 pictures of clouds. Write a haiku poem that describes each type of cloud: cirrus, cumulus, cumulonimbus, and stratus. Click on the picture to learn more about each type of cloud.

Remember!

- Capitalize the title and the beginning of each line
- Haikus are traditional Japanese poetry usually about nature. Haikus are free verse, no rhyme scheme.
- Haikus have three lines: first line is 5 syllables, second line is 7 syllables, and the third line is 5 syllables.

Compose your final copy in a Microsoft Word Document.
