

PS 153 January Dance News

Upcoming Dates:

- *January 8: Start of Ballet Tech for 3rd graders
- *January 20: No School- Martin Luther King Day
- *January 23: Assembly for 2nd grade performance by Marie-Christine Giordano Dance

Unit: Storytelling

Task: Students will learn dance motif symbols to create and tell stories using their bodies.

Essential Question: How can you use dance to tell a story?

*Students will use various stories as mentor texts to ask themselves "what elements make a good story?" They will then use these same elements when communicating a story through dance. *

---

Student Spotlight:

*Shout out to all of the students at PS 153 for all their hard work for the successful holiday show. Let's keep that up hard work in 2020!

---

Reminders:

*New year=new dance goals! What are your goals for the new year and how will work to achieve these goals?

*Please continue to wear sneakers to dance class especially when the weather starts to change (we want to keep our floor nice and clean)!
