

NYS Cancels the January 2021 Regents

Yesterday, November 5, 2020 NYS announced that the January 2021 Regents Exams are cancelled. This action does not have a wide scale or large impact on our high school students. Parents of students, and students impacted by this decision will hear directly from their school counselor explaining how this action affects their specific situation. Please click on the link if you wish to read the NYS Cancellation of January 2021 Regents memo.