In gratitude,

We have been inspired by how you have led your school communities this year as we work collectively to adapt and reimagine our schools in an unpredictable world with a focus on equity. Our whole is greater than the sum of our parts. We need one another.

We have heard you call out systemic racism and spoke to what it could look like to live an antiracist life.

We grieved with friends, colleagues, students and families.

We witnessed remarkable resilience and adaptation as each of us learn to do this work.

We have recognized that there have been many challenges and obstacles that you all have faced.

We are deeply grateful to you for your leadership, work and dedication.

To see what our new principals have done this year is both inspiring and encouraging.

We are proud of how our school communities have worked through this unprecedented time as we have each had to learn to do this work in our school and home lives.

We have been inspired by how you have led your school communities this year as we work collectively to adapt and reimagine our schools in an unpredictable world with a focus on equity. Our whole is greater than the sum of our parts. We need one another.

We have heard you call out systemic racism and spoke to what it could look like to live an antiracist life.

We grieved with friends, colleagues, students and families.

We witnessed remarkable resilience and adaptation as each of us learn to do this work.

We have recognized that there have been many challenges and obstacles that you all have faced.

We are deeply grateful to you for your leadership, work and dedication.

To see what our new principals have done this year is both inspiring and encouraging.

We are proud of how our school communities have worked through this unprecedented time as we have each had to learn to do this work in our school and home lives.