The High School of Art & Design is pleased to announce its faculty show, Insights which features works from 20 faculty artists.

The exhibition opened with a reception at the John B. Kenny Gallery from 3-5pm, Friday, September 29, 2017. The exhibition will run through October 20th. The gallery is located at 245 East 56th Street, New York City.

Exhibiting artists: James Harrington, Maria Jimenez, Brian Lee, Richard Weinstein, Andrew Bencsko, Adam Newman, Seung Lee, Donna Lewis, Hanan Harchol, Elma Reingold, Niki Lederer, Jonathan Pincus, Janice Edelman-Lee, Brenna McLaughlin, Matt Lassen, Ashleigh Staton, Shane Connelly, Ian Pasetky, Eileen Farrelly, H  l  ne Alexander

Focusing largely on process, Insights brings together a variety of works in abstract work, traditional portraiture, encaustics, and photography with text-based components. Excerpts from Maria Jimenez's MFA thesis work, James Harrington's artist statement, and interviews with Richard Weinstein and Andrew Bencsko highlight the artists' processes, recent graduate-level work, and stream of consciousness. Visitors are engaged through two-dimensional works, video, floor sculpture and fashion design in what drives, motivates and informs our current faculty work.
