

“unStill Lives”*: Open call for John B. Kenny Gallery group show at the High School of Art & Design

The High School of Art & Design at 245 East 56th Street is currently seeking work for a group show in October, 2018. This exhibition will survey the use of traditional composition in still life, paired with more unusual subject matter or materials. Please see below for the list of criteria for this upcoming exhibition:

1. Artist must be a graduate of the High School of Art & Design
2. Artist must be currently exhibiting or actively producing work for competition, juried exhibitions or gallery shows.
3. Submissions (limit of 2) must be sent digitally to kennygallerysubmission@gmail.com in jpeg format, high resolution.
4. Deadline for artwork submissions is May 1, 2018.
5. Included in the jpeg submission should be a 250-word statement about the use of materials and how it addresses the curatorial effort of the show.
6. The focus of this show is two-dimensional flat works on paper, paintings - oil or acrylic, collage, watercolor, charcoal and pencil drawings.