The High School of Art & Design is pleased to announce its cartooning show, which features works from the entire cartooning department in three grades.

The exhibition opened with a reception at the John B. Kenny Gallery from 5-7pm, Thursday, February 7, 2019. The exhibition will run through February 22nd. The gallery is located at 245 East 56th Street, New York City.

A theme for the Kenny Gallery works this year is process, and the cartooning show offers a variety of projects from student artists including fully executed maquettes. This show contains diverse media, student work and subject matter ranging from political editorial cartoons to finished comic book covers and layouts. On display is the New York Times editorial cartoon contest worldwide winner, Toshiro Weller and the runners up from that competition.
