Maximillian Re-Sugiura, Principal

Dear Incoming Students and Families,

Welcome to the High School of Art and Design, NYC's premier school for visual arts. Here you will become part of a community that spans 83+ years of influence across all professional disciplines. While the community of Art and Design has a great deal of history, we will be incomplete until you join us and contribute to a culture of innovation, collaboration and compassion. Our high standards and excellent teaching set us above the competition but do not make us unique; rather, it is the commitment of our faculty to engage students in university-level and post-secondary experiences while still in high school. With commitment to learning and self-improvement you will thrive here. Our connections are vast and when you leave Art and Design, you will be part of a network that can support and elevate your professional aspirations.

This Spring, the vast majority of you have engaged in remote learning; a challenge which has provided you with new skills and methods of communication. As we approach Summer and Fall 2020, we will provide additional updates on how this model of learning and social distancing will impact our daily instruction. Art and Design is your new home for the next four years and we could not be more proud to have you.

Sincerely,

Maximillian Re-Sugiura
