Dear 8th Grade Families,

In March, the NYC Department of Education will be distributing results letters for Round 1 of the High School Admissions process. This year, in District 26 we will be sending results letters to your home.

To ensure you receive your child's results letter, please make sure we have your preferred address.

This is the address on file with the Department of Education, and to which we will be sending your letter unless otherwise preferred:

Please check that this address is correct. If it is not correct or you wish to have your Round 1 results letter mailed to an alternate address for the High School Admissions notification only, please clearly PRINT AND RETURN that information below or on the attached envelope:

Parent/Guardian Name:
Preferred Mailing Address for High School Admissions Results ONLY:

No admissions results will be provided by phone. If you have not received your child's round 1 results letter, please visit our Guidance Counselor, Mrs. Kaufman.

If our school does not receive a signed parent/guardian response, your child's results will be mailed to the address on record.

Please initial one of the following:

- The address on record printed above is correct.
- I have printed the address to which I would like my child's results sent.

Parent's / Guardian's Name (please PRINT) _____

Parent's Guardian's Signature _____ Date _____

Return this completed letter to your child's homeroom teacher by THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2018.
