

Vision

P. S. 94K, The Henry Longfellow School is a diverse community where respect and commitment to excellence is valued. We believe in the value of developing citizens who are, proud of their cultural heritage, bilingual, bi-literate and bicultural. We envision our school as a safe, supportive learning environment where students, parents, teachers and support staff form a community of learners. P. S. 94K is committed to support all students achieve the highest standards of excellence through a rigorous Next Generation Learning Standards based curriculum which prepares students for college and career readiness.

Mission

P. S. 94K, The Henry Longfellow School is committed to developing inquisitive, critical thinkers who embark on a lifelong journey of learning.

To meet our vision and mission, we are committed to...

- Provide ALL students, within a safe, clean, and secure environment equal access to the curriculum which is an integration of academic and enrichment disciplines
- Provide students the opportunity to become bilingual, bi-literate and bicultural through our Dual Language Spanish-English and Chinese- English programs.
- Provide engaging, rigorous and coherent literacy and content area curricula aligned to the Next Generation Learning Standards.
- Provide engaging, rigorous and coherent curricula to develop critical thinkers through problem solving procedures and project-based learning.

Core Values

- Respect
- Resilience
- Empathy
- Communication
- Responsibility

P.S.94 Pledge

P.S.94 is our school. We are here to learn and grow into independent global citizens. We will be respectful of our teachers and fellow students. We will be responsible learners by coming prepared for class every day. We will work hard and challenge ourselves to become creative leaders of our own learning.