Dear ALJ Parents and Guardians~

As always, we wish you and your family a safe and enjoyable holiday. Wednesday, November 25th, 2020 will be a early dismissal day and we will follow the schedule during election week and Back to School Night:

All students AM Virtual instruction till 10:34 a.m.. However, in correlation with Mr. Grande’s letter sent out on Friday, November 20th, 2020, ALJ will be in a remote educational setting from November 30th to December 4th, 2020. All students will be following the same A/B schedule that will have increased instructional time for each class.

Half-day Instruction - 7:50a.m. - 12:02 p.m. -All Students

As always, students will be required to follow all the same school rules: be on time, find a neutral educational space and be face to face during the lesson.

After lunch hours - Teachers will be available for P.M. office hours and available for extra help on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, this is optional and this time is available if your child needs it. Thursday and Friday are optional times for teams, clubs and activities to meet.
