

First Grade
Summer Reading Task
2018

Summer time is a great time for young readers to dive into a good book! Select one of the books from below and one of the Activity Choices:

Nonfiction Text Choices

- My Five Senses by Alike
- Truck by Donald Crews

Fiction Text Choices

- Owl at Home by Arnold Lobel
- Put Me in the Zoo by Robert Lopshire

Summer Reading Tasks will be due September 8, 2016. Your child's first grade teacher will collect and grade their work.

Choose one of the Activity Choices below:

For Nonfiction Texts choose one of the following activities:

- Mini Book Creations-Using the information that you read about, create a mini book that can teach others about what you have learned. Be sure to include a title page along with facts and pictures to show how creative you can be as a writer and illustrator!
- Diorama-Using the information that you read about, create a diorama that expresses the important parts of the book. Your diorama will teach others about what the book was mostly about.

OR

Choose one of the Activity Choices below:

For Fiction Texts choose one of the following activities:

- Story Sequence-Retell the events of the story by using words and pictures to show the important parts of the story. Be creative!
- Character Collage- Express your artistic abilities by showing what you have read about. What do you know about the character? What are their likes/dislikes? Share what you read about the character