

Brown April 27-30 Reading/LA

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZPrunvv4eys> (Chapter 5)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0B04NB0e7KI> (Chapter 6)

Please return all completed work at the same time, hopefully by Thursday.**

1. Use the Venn diagram below to state the similarities and differences between Hal and Charles' camp and François and Perrault's camp with a minimum of five bullet points. What are some of the details in how the camps are kept tell about the people who own them? Ex. dirty, organized, responsible

2. What is civil disobedience? How is Buck exhibiting this principle? Restate and answer in complete sentences.

3. Suppose you are one of Buck’s owners—François; the man known as the Scotch half breed; or Hal, Charles, or Mercedes. Write a letter to someone back home about your experience in the Yukon. Tell about the travel conditions, your travel companions, and the dog team. Remember to write from the point of view of the character you’ve chosen, and be sure your letter reflects his personality. Use details from the story to add specifics to your letter.

Letter Organizer

_____ (Today's date)
Dear _____, (Person you are writing to)
Introduction: Tell who you are and why you are writing this letter.

Paragraph: Include the information that you would like to tell your reader.

Ending: Finish by thanking the person for reading your letter.

_____ Closing, (examples: Sincerely, Yours truly)
_____ (Your name)

Active Reading

The Call of the Wild

For each set of owners Buck has in this section, write words and phrases in the web diagram that describe the people, how they treat the dogs in general, and what the dogs experience.

