Happy Friday,

A Few Friday Updates

- All teachers have Daily Office Hours from 2:00-2:20 pm. If you or your child would like to speak to or meet (virtually) with a staff member, please email them to set up a time during office hours.
- We are still awaiting a Remote/Blended Learning grading policy from Central. Until we receive a grading policy, assessments will be used for formative purposes.
- Next week, we are inviting students to wear Halloween colors and/or shirts on Wednesday- Friday so that all cohorts can participate. We will not be wearing costumes to school this year as Halloween falls on a Saturday.
- Election Day is November 3rd and will be a full remote instructional day for all staff and students. Grades PK-4 students will be with their homeroom teachers for the day. Grades 5-8 will follow a departmentalized schedule. Election Day schedules will be shared early next week.
- Thank you for your donations! With some last minute donations handed in, we raised $540.00 for Making Strides Against Breast Cancer
- Yearbooks can still be purchased by sending in $20.00 cash or check payable to PS/MS 114 to your homeroom teacher or by calling the main office.
- Our parent workshop titled, Behavioral Supports for Remote Learning is now posted on our website in the Parent Support Link on the main page.

Have a wonderful weekend!
