

Blizzard of Books!

Our third Book Fair event is the Blizzard of Books!

Beginning on Monday, November 18th, students may purchase a surprise snowball egg for $1. Each egg contains a fun prize, such as slap bracelets, erasers, squishies, and mini puzzle cubes! A total of TEN of the eggs contain a coupon for a FREE BOOK OF CHOICE from the book fair! Each egg purchased is another chance to win a free book!

Students may purchase surprise snowballs during lunch each day until they are gone. There are only 150 surprise snowballs available, so act fast! Last year's surprise eggs sold out on the first day!

After each purchase, students can fill out a paper snowball with his or her favorite book title! Snowballs will be posted on a book fair bulletin board outside the library to create a blizzard of books! Additional snowballs for the bulletin board can be purchased for 25 cents to help create a white out!

One lucky Blizzard of Books participant will win a plush snowball fight game to play at home!
