

VOTING EXTENDED!

If you did not vote for Polar Bear vs Narwhal yet, you can still vote on Monday, November 11th! Voting will take place in the cafeteria during lunch and in the main office after school. This is the final opportunity to vote in this challenge.

Pre-K students may vote in their classrooms on Monday since they do not go to the cafeteria for lunch.

Winners will be announced on Tuesday and will receive their stuffie of choice and a book to match! The winning animal will be the mascot of the book fair!

Thanks to everyone who has voted thus far!
