

Take advantage of a scholarship program for DREAMers offering up to 100 percent of the total tuition cost.

Kaplan understands the challenges students, especially undocumented immigrants, face on a daily basis; we believe the cost of education should not be one of them. Now highly motivated students who demonstrate need can pursue a college education that leads to a career-ready degree.

To Learn More:

 dreamers.mountwashington.edu

 877.861.7065

 DreamersEducation@kaplan.com

Building the American dream one student at a time.

THE DREAM.US - a national scholarship fund for dreamers - awards scholarships for tuition, fees, and books to DREAMers who have demonstrated financial need, academic achievement, and a high motivation to succeed and are accepted to attend one of THE DREAM.US partner colleges. Mount Washington College holds the honor of being the first partner college of the THE DREAM.US.

Kaplan, Inc., is a subsidiary of Graham Holdings, formerly The Washington Post Company. *Must meet THE DREAM.US scholarship criteria, including demonstrated financial need, academic achievement, and a high motivation to succeed, applied for or received DACA status, first year college student seeking an associate's or bachelor's degree. *Mount Washington College cannot guarantee employment or career advancement. Please contact an Admissions Representative for more information. #Mount Washington College is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc., through its Commission on Institutions of Higher Education.

The scholarship program for DREAMers offers up to 100 percent of the total tuition cost.*

Through the DREAMers Education Initiative, highly motivated, young undocumented immigrants can enroll in Mount Washington College and earn an associate's or bachelor's degree in business administration or information technology online.

- > Scholarships are available to those who qualify through THE DREAM.US.*
- > You'll learn from instructors with industry experience who teach the latest skills and provide the practical knowledge employers seek most.†
- > Our bilingual advisors (English and Spanish) will help you through the application process and support you throughout your time in college.
- > We can help you achieve academic success and bring your skills up to speed in math, reading, and writing.
- > Self-paced student success course engages you in interpersonal and web-based activities to help you thrive in the online learning environment and beyond.
- > Through our partnerships you will have access to educational tutorials. We also support you from the DACA application process through your studies and provide connections to internships and jobs.†

- > Mount Washington College's curriculum is focused on building measurable, relevant skills employers want. Our online classes help you balance a college education with your life's demands. Your virtual classrooms are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Earn your associate's degree in accounting

- > You will receive training in accounting theories and principles and the way they are applied in business. You'll also develop the necessary knowledge and skills to enter the fields of accounting or business.
- > Program outcomes:
 - Recognize and record accounting transactions and understand their need and importance in supporting the accounting function of business.
 - Use computer-based accounting software in analysis of and recording of accounting transactions to support the accounting function.
 - Understand and apply tax laws and regulations to specific tax situations and problems in business.
- > Potential entry-level careers may include: assistant office manager, operations manager, branch controller, budget analyst.

Earn your associate's or bachelor's degree in information technology

- > Designed to provide students with a fundamental understanding of the concepts of information technology. Diverse courses focused on preparing you to meet the needs of individuals and organizations by integrating and facilitating communication and collaboration.
- > Program outcomes:
 - Recognize the need for continuing information technology professional development.
 - Communicate effectively on information technology matters with a range of audiences.
 - Critique the local and global impact of information technology on individuals, organizations, and society.
- > Potential entry-level careers may include: web developer, application software developer, database administrator.

Earn your associate's or bachelor's degree in business administration

- > Our courses are designed to help you pursue a variety of positions in the field of business while incorporating the communication skills, critical thinking, and technical competencies you need to compete in the modern workplace.
- > Program outcomes:
 - Demonstrate an understanding of the role of accounting and finance in the management process.
 - Discuss micro- and macroeconomic principles and articulate the impact that those principles have on the organizational decision-making process.
 - Analyze the role of marketing in the business environment and apply core marketing principles to the development of business strategy and decision-making processes.
- > Potential entry-level careers may include: financial service representative, operations manager, assistant store manager.

Speak to an advisor today! 877.861.7065 | dreamers.mountwashington.edu