Federal Programs pertaining to high school aged children:

McKinney-Vento (Homeless) – Title I, Part A & Title X (All Schools):
- Resources to support children and families meeting Homeless Criteria (school supplies, fees, school uniforms, academic assistance and other family support services)
- Referral services to community agencies for assistance with housing, clothing, utilities, food, health care, etc....
- Tutoring and Summer Programs

Migrant Education Program – Title I, Part C (All Schools):
- Recruitment Services
- Tutoring services for eligible migrant students
- Supplemental instructional materials
- Resources to support migrant families regarding family needs
- School supplies

Neglected and Delinquent Program – Title I, Part D (All Schools):
- Instructional support services to students at the Juvenile Justice Facility who have been identified through the court system (tutoring, school supplies, professional development)
- Transition Activities for students returning to public schools
- Summer Enrichment

Title II (All Schools):
- Curriculum Specialists to provide support and assistance to teachers
- Staff Development activities
- Funding for Teacher Certification/Highly Qualified (reimbursements for college courses and stipends for professional development)
- Materials needed for successful completion of staff development activities
- Principal/Assistant Principal Leadership Trainings

Title III (All Schools):
- Language Arts materials of instruction for students identified as English Language Learners
- PD activities to assist regular classroom teachers with servicing ELL students
- Online support for learning the English Language

Title VII, Indian Education Program (All Schools):
- Tutoring and educational materials to eligible Native American Students and their families
- Summer camps for eligible Native American Students that provide cultural enhancement and academic enrichment
- Cultural activities such as drumming and regalia classes