

You're Invited to the High School Fairs

Come to a high school fair to meet with schools in your borough! If you're interested in schools in other boroughs, you can go to those fairs, too. All fairs will have workshops on how to apply to high school—these cover the same material as the summer workshops in July 2018.

There will also be presentations on the audition process for arts programs and Career and Technical Education at some of the fairs.

Visit schools.nyc.gov/High to learn more about the fairs and to register—you don't need a ticket to attend, but we encourage you to register so that we know how many people to expect.
