

Principal's Log 2.6

Dear TMS Families,

To help students that are absent from school or are struggling, our teachers offer 1 hour of extra help per week during office hours. Some choose to break the hour into two ½ hour blocks of time. These may be review or practice sessions. Difficult material may be retaught and children are able to practice skills. Although many students' questions are answered, these are not 1:1 tutoring sessions. I suggest that students who plan to attend make travel arrangements 1 school day in advance. Late buses are available. Office hours begin right after school so students can still attend sports or clubs. Please see the included schedule for more information.
