

Principal's Log 2.22

Dear TMS Families,

Excellent schools have affiliations with outside organizations that enrich the lives of students. Among the many such connections that exist, our art department, led by Ms. Cacace has developed a relationship with the Tuckahoe Eastchester Lions Club. For the past seven years, Tuckahoe Middle School has participated in the Peace Poster Contest with the Tuckahoe Eastchester Lions Club. Every year the theme around peace slightly changes. This year's theme was "Journey of Peace."

Students created artwork that expressed their vision of this theme. One created a road leading to the sky adorned with international flags and images of peace. Another took a symbolic approach, using a winged dove flying through symbols of peace. These powerful images remind us of the power of peace to shape our world in school and beyond. You can find images of the celebration honoring the winners of this contest on my twitter feed. Congratulations to First Place - Joanne Arana, Second Place - Ronald Calligaris, Third Place - Kye Rodgers.

Have a great weekend!

My best,

Greg Stiefel
