

Principal's Log 2.7

Dear TMS Families,

Let's face it, sometimes it is tough sledding getting a middle school student up in the morning and out the door for school. They pull the blankets over their heads and mumble, "Two more minutes please, I beg you!" I know in my house, the smell of bacon or cinnamon buns can help and Otto our St. Bernard is a formidable alarm clock, but sometimes you need a little help. There is no doubt that students wake up a little faster when there are fun events planned at school.

With this in mind, I'm writing to announce that Tuckahoe Middle School will celebrate Spirit Week from October 28th through November 1st. This is a fun, safe way for students to express themselves and their school pride. Let's thank our student government for their planning. Please remember that the dress code still applies, students' faces must be visible and anything that could be mistaken as a weapon is prohibited.

Here is the line up:

MONDAY 10/28	TUESDAY 10/29	WEDNESDAY 10/30	THURSDAY 10/31	FRIDAY 11/1
Mismatch Monday Wear your wackiest clothing.	Time Travel Tuesday Wear clothes that bring you back to the past or forward to the future.	Wear your Grade Color Wednesday - 6th Blue - 7th Red - 8th Green	Pajama Day Wear your comfiest bedtime apparel!	Character Day! Wear a costume of any character.* (ex: movie, book, Broadway, TV)

Have a great weekend!

My Best, Greg Stiefel
