

The 2019 BREAD OF LIFE FOOD DRIVE

Can you help us collect food for the needy?

The Bread of Life Food Drive is a food drive involving students, teachers, families, and friends from 131 schools, including ours. It is held for the benefit of Staten Island organizations that serve the needy.

When does the drive take place?

The drive runs from Monday, April 1, 2019 through Friday, April 12, 2019.

Where does the food go?

Food from the Bread of Life Drive will be given to the following organizations and others on Staten Island:

- Project Hospitality
- Catholic Charities
- Council of Jewish Organizations of S.I.
- Franciscan Handmaids of Mary- Camp St. Edward
- New York Foundling Hospital
- A.I.D.S. – Task Force
- Richmond Home Need Services
- Salvation Army
- Stapleton UAME Church
- The CrossRoad Foundation

These organizations help the Island's needy: people who've lost their jobs or benefits -senior citizens struggling to make ends meet – single mothers with infant children -victims of domestic violence – needy families – and the homeless.

What kinds of food are needed most?

Contributions of canned meats and fish, baby formula and baby cereal, all types of canned soups, vegetables, fruits and juices, pasta, canned tomato sauce or puree, rice, peanut butter, powdered milk and other kitchen essentials would be specially welcomed.

What can you do to help?

Contributions can be brought to school any day between Monday, April 1, 2019 and Friday, April 12, 2019.

On behalf of the recipient organizations, we thank you for your generosity and support.
