News from Day Camp

April 22, 2020

Dear Families,

We hope that this message finds you and your family well. Like so many schools, camps and other organizations, PHDC is working hard to navigate the uncharted waters of this very challenging time.

While there is so much uncertainty that exists, we would like to share with you the most current information and the PHDC planning that is underway. At this time, we remain hopeful that Summer 2020 at Camp Poco will still take place without an interruption. However, we are also developing alternative plans in the event a partial or full closure is necessary. We are exploring the possibility of a shorter camp season, shifting the camp timeframe or even a virtual camp experience. As we await state and local recommendations and direction from the Department of Health, we will use this time to prepare a program that embodies the Camp Poco spirit!

Our online registration remains open and we have extended the registration period until June 15th. If you would like to sign your camper up, please use the link on the district website to access the parent portal. In the event that the camp season is cancelled, PHDC will issue a full refund of deposit and tuition payments. If you are in need of a refund before a final decision is made about the camp season, please reach out to us directly.

We are hoping that we will be able to see everyone back at camp this summer for another season filled with friendship, adventure and fun! Know that we will be sure to communicate updates as soon as the information becomes available. If you have any questions, please reach out to us directly via email.

Sincerely,

Ryan King
